Novoseltsi Okoliya People's Council and Militia Building:

1. In Novoseltsi (Elin Pelin), the Okoliya People's Council and the Militia are housed in a building which is located in the center of the city between the wood and vegetable market and the Partisan Monument. The building, which has four stories, is yellow, and measures 10 by 6 or 7 meters. There is a door on each of the long sides of the building. On the eastern side there is a garden, which measures 30 or 40 by 20 meters, and which is enclosed by a brick wall 1.2 meters high. The gymnasium building is about six meters south of this building.
2. The Militia dormitory and the office which issues identification cards are on the first floor; the Okoliya People's Council offices are on the second floor; the third and fourth floors are used by the Militia.

Government Officials

3. The following government officials in Novoseltsi were named by informant:
 - a. Petur Frenoski, Chief of the Okoliya People's Council; born in Stolnik (N 42-41, E 23-39) circa 1912, he is of average height, weighs about 176 pounds, has a round ruddy face, blue eyes and is clean-shaven; he is a graduate of the fifth or sixth grade and was a Partisan before 1944; and
 - b. Mitko Yurucheto, born in Stolnik in 1922, he looks two or three years younger than he really is; he was a common laborer before 1944.
